

I am outraged by the idea that Michael Powell can hold the vote without public discussion. I am terrified by the idea of greater media-managed and manufactured news. We need public access to government action. By the people, for the people, of the people. Or, are we no longer a democracy.